

How can I be a more compassionate parent?

Community Workshop
Wednesday 16th November
at 6pm

Presented by:
Evieann Barber,
Nursery School Manager

Held at the Nursery School,
The International School
of the TCIs

Discover new ways to help improve our ability to respond rather than react to children we love.

This workshop is aimed at all parents and early childhood educators.

Join us for a free and informal workshop designed to help parents and educators learn to enhance their skills in observation and communication with their children. Find new ways to improve your ability to respond to your child's needs.
