

English

Reviewing word classes and improving sentences.
Reviewing paragraphs and punctuating speech.
Using adverbs and fronted adverbials to add more detail. Using taught strategies to answer questions on fiction and non-fiction texts. Follow Talk for Writing booklet 'The Truth about Mountain Ogres' and create information texts. Continue with class reader - 'White Dolphin'.

Handwriting

Common cursive letter patterns and joins.
Monitoring pencil grip and correct pressure and posture.
Accurate, neat dictations and copying.

Spelling

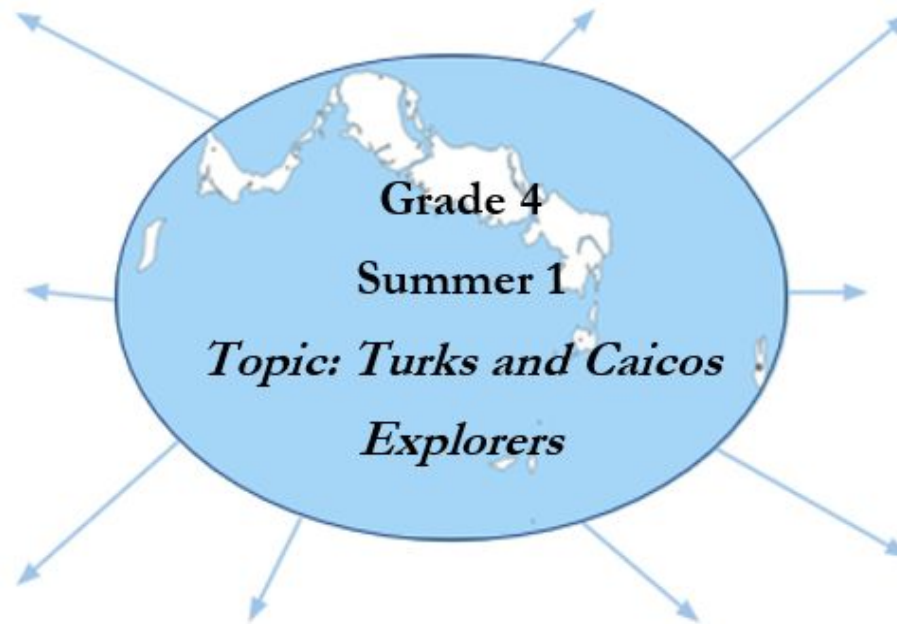

Adding prefixes to root words to change their meaning: inter-, anti-, auto-, ex- and non-.

PSHE

Morning class time for conversations and opportunities to share.
Talking about current world events and their significance.
Discussing friendships and emotions.
Using reflection and relaxation to improve behaviour self-regulation, and manage focus and stress levels.

Science It's Electric!

To make some basic circuits and understand how to draw circuits using symbols.
To understand the parts of a plug and to apply this to electrical safety in the house.
To see the difference between basic series circuits and parallel circuits.
To see how to increase the power in a circuit and to look at resistance.
To investigate poor and good electrical conductors.
To carry out a fair test and conclude an investigation appropriately.

Spanish

Review grammar and sentence structure.
How to describe yourself in the first person using verbs 'to be' and 'to have'.
Using and conjugating verbs when talking about your hobbies.
Asking how many "Cuántos/as hay"
Describing pets using adjectives.
Review the days of the week and create a schedule, speaking about your daily routine.
Pets in Spanish speaking countries.
Conversation practice - using the vocabulary we have learned to practise grammatical structures.
Reading comprehension practice.

Maths

Reinforcing times tables and number bonds to improve speed and accuracy.
Fractions - converting between improper fractions and mixed numbers, adding and subtracting and simplifying.
Time - telling the time, converting between units of time, word problems.
Drawing and reading line graphs.

Computing

Finger positions for touch typing whilst looking at the screen.
Continuing to develop coding problem solving skills.
Safe and relevant web searches to research information.
Cross-curricular links to complete class activities.

Physical Education

Swimming
Physical activity
Physical fitness
Group interaction
Walking
Jogging
Hopping
Nutrition

Topic

Sharing existing knowledge about Turks and Caicos and its history.
Discussing the importance of the country's history and identity, including its first people.
Researching information about the explorers and merchants who came to Turks and Caicos.