

English

Read internet articles and non-fiction texts to learn about extreme events for non-fiction writing.
Identify the features of fiction writing and write imaginative stories focusing on language.
Learn imagery features in poetry i.e. personification, metaphors etc.
Grammar: relative clauses, expanded noun phrases and fronted adverbials.

Handwriting

Practise consistency and size of letters
Practise using a diagonal joining line
Practice leaving an equal space between letters. Practising joining to the letter y, practising joining from the letter i, practising joining to and from the letter v.

PSHE

What are our class key values?
What does friendship mean to you? What makes a good friend?
Respecting differences
Digital citizenship - how can we be good digital citizens?

Science

Changes of State
Investigate what are reversible and irreversible changes.
Chemical changes and physical changes, including solubility.
Separation and dissolving.
Oxidation.
Burning, candles and the use of oxygen.

Grade 5

AUTUMN 1

Topic: Extreme Earth

Spanish

Review greetings and farewells.
Review alphabet.
Review and learn new numbers, up to 1000. Be able to use numbers to discuss how many.
Grammar: "Cuantos/as hay?"
male/female
There is/are - "Hay"
Key Questions: Where do you live?
What is it like there?

Maths

Number and Place value
Multiplication and Division
Addition and Subtraction
Word Problems
Statistics: Graphs
To make and identify patterns in numbers using knowledge of place value, to consolidate and refine subtraction and addition skills, place value knowledge to solve the problems, to multiply a 3 digit number by 2 digit number using multiple methods.

Art & Design

Use different materials to create the effect of a volcano, earthquake, hurricane or blizzard
Role play as a weather forecaster to predict extreme weather
Design a survival kit for someone living in the hottest place on Earth
Use mime to show how climbing Mount Everest would feel

PE

Aerobics
Scissors Jump
Mountain Climbers
Jump rope count to 30
Windmills
Dance for 30 seconds
Jumping Jacks

Topic

Research information about the features of volcanoes, earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes, blizzards and tornadoes. What are the similarities and differences between them all?
Explore some of Earth's extreme places - hottest, coldest, driest places on Earth.
Compare and contrast physical features of the Earth